A Card.

"Nothing you can say from your thinking will avail with the newly bereaved, but anything you can say from your knowing, and believing and feeling will be precious."

More precious than any words, however, is the remembrance of kind deeds done for our beloved dead; and this memory is now a great consolation to me.

It is needless for me to assure all that my heart is filled with gratitude for kind ministrations to one so dear to me. Her room constantly resembled a conservatory filled with beautiful flowers, and daily, dainties to tempt the appetite, were sent in abundance; hardly an hour passed but some one would call for a kindly inquiry, or send a loving message, or stop for a chat to cheer and encourage. All, young and old, male and female, seemed to vie with one another in an effort to interest, entertain and relieve the invalid. And these manifestations of interest and exhibitions of kindness continued to and culminated at her grave.

God bless the people of Starkville. They are the kindest in the world.

W. H. MILLER.

The New Spring Hat.

"What is that I see before me?"
Asked the poor bewildered man;
"Isn't it a flower pot inverted,
Or isn't it a new dishpan?
A fancy market basket
Or a brand new chimney pot?"
When his wife emphatic answered,
"Indeed, sir, it is not!"
"What is it, then?" he queried,
"And why is't so gay?
Why decked with such fine rigging,
Oh, what is it, dear, I pray?
I suppose it has some meaning,
I suppose some use it bears;
Is it some barbaric vase, dear,
Then why isn't it pairs?"
But she answered, oh, so coldly,
"Pray, what are you driving at?
Can't you see this thing of beauty
Is my stylish new spring hat?"
"And must I go with that horror?"
"Yes," she said "for it is bought."
But she shrank as he fell prostrate—
He had fainted at the thought!

brightest, and biggest Southern Newspaper.

One Dollar a Year

Almost a Daily, yet at the price of a Weekly.

or The Weekly Constitution—once a week, with each of the above (except that The Weekly Constitution is substituted for the Tri-Weekly)—all for one year for only $1.40 The Tri-Weekly Constitution presents at one sweeping view the whole area of events. The news of the country, state, nation, and the world is given in each complete issue. Each week the departments of Farm and Farmers, Woman's Kingdom, Great Agricultural South, Farmers' Union, Rural Free Delivery, Poultry and others of wide interest, edited by experts, appeal directly to those addressed.

The Weekly Constitution contains all these special features and the difference between it and The Tri-Weekly is that the one is issued once a week (on Monday only) and the other three times a week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

If you want the Constitution alone, without any clubbing offers, you can get the Tri-Weekly Constitution at $1 per year, or The Weekly at 50c per year, by addressing The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga. One sample copy sent free on request, giving with it six of your neighbors.

THE CONSTITUTION IS THE PAPER FOR RURAL FREE DELIVERY ROUTES

A club of 40 or 50 or more will keep an R. F. D. route above the minimum average required for daily mail service. It is the great news purveyor of the whole Southland, as good in the gulf states as on the Atlantic seaboard.

Clubbed with The Atlanta Constitution, we have the superb FREE OFFERS shown from which you may make your choice of one:

(1) Talks From Farmers to Farmers, a symposium of Southern farm knowledge that should be in the hands of every practical farmer, young or old. The articles have all appeared in Tri-Weekly Constitution under same title and made one of the greatest features of this splendid farmers' paper. It will be mailed to you immediately upon receipt of order.

(2) The Southern Ruralist, one of the best agricultural papers in the south. It is a semi-monthly edited by a farmer on his own farm, and is intensely practical and helpful.

(3) Paris Modes, a woman's magazine, monthly. There are fashions in it, as the title indicates, and they are right up to date. Do not think they are all of the sylph-like, hipless, clothes-pin styles of the extreme devotees of the changeable flirt called "Fashion." They are all pretty and becoming and up to date, so that the ladies may feel well-dressed and in the style who follow them. But you get more than mere fashions. There are stories, poems, storyettes, incidents of travel, seasonable articles for entertainments, home keeping, cookery, care of the person, sanitation and hygiene, plant culture and all the rest that go to make up a monthly feast for the busy woman who reads as she works, who relaxes from one task and finds charm in the ever-varying features of woman's work that is said to be never done.

OUR GREAT PROPOSITION

Remember, our paper one year, and THE TRI-WEEKLY CONSTITUTION, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, three times a week, for one year, and your selection of one from the three alternate free offers, all for $1.75; or the whole combination (except that The Weekly Constitution is substituted for the Tri-Weekly) for only... $1.40

THE EAST MISSISSIPPI TIMES, Starkville, Miss.

The following pathetic and heart-rending poem entitled "Nevermore" was written by a Tennessee Colonel who resides near Memphis. It would make the heart of a stoic throb with pain and bring tears to the eyes of a wooden Indian:

"Can't I buy my booze hereafter
Like I always used to do?
Send to Nashville by a grafter,
Bring me back a pint or two?
Can't I go and get my fill,
Like the good old days of yore—
Have my fun and foot my bill?
Quoth the House, "No, Nevermore."
Can't I go down on the "shopper,"
Just to get a little drink,
Quaff some beer and pull a stopper—
Think the world's a skating rink,
Come back home on the 8:20
As I always did before,
Feeling like I'd had a plenty?
Senate answers "Nevermore!!"
Can't I get no more good (?) whiskey
In the state of Tennessee?
Can't get happy, glad nor frisky
On a glorious little spree,
Come home 3 o'clock a. m.
Find no key-holes in the door,
Aching head and pocket slim?
State-wide's answer, "Nevermore!"
Taxes sure to go up higher,
All the business it will kill,
While I'm not a whiskey buyer,
Guess I'll move to Evansville!"

The Law Enforcement meeting at the Methodist church Sunday night was well attended. The report of the State Law and Order League at Jackson by our delegate John W. Welborn, and the excellent address by President Whitfield of the I. I. & C. were both interesting and highly instructive.

The Quality Item.

A new customer on GILL'S ICE CREAM was one of the best pleased of any of our recent entertainers. This proof is in the eating, and the enjoyment is shown by the empty dishes after service. The quality is really better than the rest, and that is the accounting for the growth in my sales of the item. We are pleased to announce preparation to extend the service, with free delivery as heretofore, and hope to have your order when you want "the best there is."
